

Rural Medical Education Program
University of Illinois College of Medicine at Rockford

2023

DUAL APPLICATION PROCEDURES CHECK LIST

I. To apply to the University of Illinois College of Medicine:

- Take the MCAT (Medical College Admissions Test) no later than September 2023.
- Apply to the University of Illinois College of Medicine by completing the AMCAS (American Medical College Application Service) application.
Note: University of Illinois application primary files must be complete by November 1, 2023.
- Complete the College's Supplemental Information Application. Once you are offered the Supplemental Application, you will be offered the chance to complete the Rural Medical Education (RMED) Application, online. The RMED application can be found on the Supplemental Application site. Submit the supplemental information and the RMED application no later than December 1, 2023. Complete the required CASPer test by requested deadline.
- Complete applications to the College require a minimum of three academic letters of recommendation. Academic letters of recommendation must be submitted through AMCAS and received by the University of Illinois no later than December 1, 2023.

II. To apply to the Rural Medical Education Program:

- Complete the RMED application which can be found on the Supplemental Application site. (Deadline: December 1, 2023 - the earlier the better!).
- Ask three people from your home community to send letters of recommendation on your behalf to the RMED Program. Enclosed are RMED address labels to provide to your references. (Deadline: December 1, 2023). Note: These letters are IN ADDITION TO the academic letters submitted through AMCAS and required by UIC. RMED letters of recommendation must be sent to the RMED Program at the Rockford campus, (not to AMCAS) or they may be emailed to mmeurer@uic.edu
- X You will be notified when your RMED file is complete (i.e., the application and three letters of recommendation have been received).
- X Upon completion, all files will be screened to determine which applicants will be invited for interviews at the end of January, 2024.
- X Successful candidates will be recommended to the College of Medicine Admissions Committee for admission to the RMED Program and the College.
- X Please contact the RMED office if you have any questions about the process.
